Re: OASIS System Transformation Presentation Video
Date: December 29, 2008

The Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services (DDRS) would like to announce that a recording of the December 17, 2008 Objective Assessment System for Individual Supports (OASIS) system transformation presentation is now available online for viewing. Those who were unable to watch the event live or anybody who would like to review the presentation can do so at: <http://www.in.gov/fssa/ddrs/3766.htm>.

The program has been divided into eleven (11) chapters to help you find and review specific areas of interest. Once you click on a chapter, the embedded "video player" should automatically stream the recording. You may select any chapter at any time or watch the event in its entirety by selecting each chapter in turn. If the video does not start, click the "Launch in external player" link to view.
